

University of Baghdad gets the + 601th rank in engineering and technology in TIMES World University Rankings 2019 by subject

As a continuation of the achievements reached at by University of Baghdad in global rankings, our university has got the + 601th rank in engineering and technology in TIMES World University Rankings 2019 by subject for the first time in Iraq. It is worth mentioned that University of Baghdad has also recorded the + 601th rank in life sciences and the + 801th rank in physical sciences.

Related Links:

THE World University Rankings

University of Baghdad Ranking

World University Rankings 2019 by Subject: Engineering and Technology

World University Rankings 2019 by Subject: Physical Sciences

World University Rankings 2019 by Subject: Life Sciences

Rector of University of Baghdad holds a meeting with directors of research centers

Rector of University of Baghdad, Prof. Dr. Alaa Abdul Hussein Abdul Rasool held a joint meeting with the directors of research centers in the presence of Associate Rector for scientific affairs Assistant Prof. Dr. Osama Fadel Abdul Latif and the director of scientific affairs Assistant Prof. Dr. Sudad Hisham Hussein. The Rector during this meeting hinted to various topics related to the development of these centers and their importance in taking real roles for addressing the problems faced by the Iraqi society and the need for being more productive in their research also he discussed matters regarding the problems facing the work of such academic centers in order to overcome them so that they would assist in supporting our university in global rankings. At the conclusion of the meeting, the Rector thanked the attendees, praising their sincere work and wishing all the best to serve our beloved people.

Associate Rector for scientific affairs keeps abreast of the educational process progress at the college of languages

Associate Rector for scientific affairs at University of Baghdad Assistant Prof. Dr. Osama Fadel Abdul Lateef visited the college of languages to keep abreast of the progress of the educational process there. Associate Rector was accompanied by dean of the college of languages Assistant Prof. Dr. Gaida Qais Ibrahim during a tour among sound and conversation laboratories at different scientific departments where Associate Rector was briefed on the work system of dialogues between students and professors and he directed the need for strengthening the applied aspects of the academic process to elevate the scientific level of our students. Assistant Prof. Dr. Osama Fadel Abdul Lateef also met members at units and divisions to follow-up the administrative work that should be in the service of the scientific and the academic march of the college.

Students of the college of languages in the hospitality of the Chinese Embassy

A delegation of students from the college of languages at University of Baghdad chaired by head of the department of Spanish language Dr. Muayad Ahmed Ali visited the Chinese embassy in Baghdad, at the invitation of the Chinese ambassador on the occasion of their return from the People's Republic of China after participating in the summer camp (Chinese Language Bridge) dedicated for the Iraqi students. This meeting was attended by the Rector of University of Baghdad, Prof. Dr. Alaa Abdul Hussein Abdul Rasool who exchanged with the Chinese Ambassador ways of scientific and cultural cooperation between University of Baghdad and Chinese universities. The Rector urged students to reflect all their positive potential in the advanced Chinese universities in order to transfer experience to their fellow students that may in return improve the scientific and the academic level of our country in line with the developed countries.

